

Wellington Racqueteers Player/Member Code of Conduct

Creating a supportive and encouraging environment for members of the LGBTQI+ Rainbow Community to engage with Badminton at all levels

Note: This document should be reviewed on a regular basis prior to an AGM and should take into account the members' expectations also.

Wellington Racqueteers recognises Te Tiriti o Waitangi as Aotearoa New Zealand's founding document, and is committed to upholding the mana of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and the principles of Partnership, Protection and Participation.

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to set out the standards of behaviour expected of Players/Club Members. By paying fees and playing, each member agrees to adhere to this Code of Conduct at all times.

Everyone involved with the Wellington Racqueteers must:

- Obey the Law at all times

Everyone is expected to:

- follow the principles of fair play, and encourage others to do the same
- respect the rights, dignity and value of others
- be considerate and treat everyone fairly and equally
- be a positive role model
- communicate with others in a way that is honest and considerate
- be committed to upholding a supportive sporting environment
- behave professionally, responsibly and ethically, at all times
- not behave in a way that is discriminatory, bullying, harassing, racist, sexist, violent, abusive or otherwise inappropriate towards others, in person or online
- play competitively and fairly
- play by the rules of Badminton
- be humble in both success and defeat
- be respectful of any officials/referees, coaches, team managers, teammates, and other competitors in any tournament environment
- be respectful of the staff of Badminton Wellington at all times

Individuals who wish to report an alleged breach of this Code of Conduct should follow the complaints procedure outlined in the Complaints Policy and Procedure.
